

Amtrak Extra Baggage Fees: Allowances, Restrictions and Booking Tips

Amtrak is known for a more generous baggage allowance than most airlines, but the rules 1.866 332 0736 still vary by train and station. This guide explains how many bags you can bring, 1.866 332 0736 the size and weight limits, which fees can apply, and what to do if something 1.866 332 0736 goes wrong. Always confirm current rules on Amtrak.com or with Amtrak at 1.866 332 0736 before you 1.866 332 0736 travel.

How Much Baggage Can You Bring on Amtrak?

Amtrak's published allowance has three parts: one personal item, two carry-on bags and, where 1.866 332 0736 the service is available, checked baggage. Personal items and carry-on bags are free. Amtrak's checked 1.866 332 0736 baggage service is limited to certain trains and stations.

1. Personal item: 1 item, up to 1.866 332 0736 25 lbs, no larger than 14 x 11 x 7 inches, and small enough to 1.866 332 0736 fit under your seat.
2. Carry-on bags: 2 bags free, up to 50 lbs each and 1.866 332 0736 28 x 22 x 14 inches each.
3. Checked bags: up to 4 per passenger where 1.866 332 0736 service is offered, with 2 free and 2 more at $20 per bag.

If your 1.866 332 0736 bags do not fit these limits, speak to a station agent or check Amtrak.com to 1.866 332 0736 see whether your train offers checked baggage service.

What Are the Amtrak Carry-On Rules?

Carry-on bags must fit in the overhead 1.866 332 0736 rack or luggage tower. You must be able to lift your own bag safely onto 1.866 332 0736 the shelf. Personal items such as a small bag or backpack must fit under the 1.866 332 0736 seat.

Amtrak says bags must fit in the baggage sizer at the station. On the 1.866 332 0736 Pacific Surfliner, carry-on bags are slightly smaller, at up to 28 x 22 x 11 1.866 332 0736 inches each. If a bag is too big, you may be asked to check it, 1.866 332 0736 pay a fee, or be denied boarding with it.

How Does Amtrak Checked Baggage Work?

Checked baggage is not available on 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 every train or at every station. Before you book, make sure both your origin and 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 destination stations offer checked baggage service. If you are unsure, call Amtrak at 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 for 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 details of service availability.

1. Check that your train and both stations accept checked baggage.
2. Arrive 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 at the station early and take your bags to the baggage counter.
3. Attach a tag 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 with your name and address to every bag.
4. Keep your essentials in your carry-on, because 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 you cannot reach checked bags while on board.
5. Collect your bags at your arrival station 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 after each segment of your trip, unless Amtrak tells you otherwise.

Each checked bag can 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 weigh up to 50 lbs (23 kg) and measure up to 75 linear inches, which 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 is length plus width plus height. If the station is not staffed, you may need 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 to carry your bags on board and store them in the luggage area of your 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 train car.

What Are the Amtrak Baggage Fees?

Amtrak's published fee structure is simple, but extra items add up. Here is 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 what the airline-style charges look like.

1. Extra carry-on or personal items: $20 for each item 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 above the allowed quantity or size.
2. Third and fourth checked bags: $20 per bag.
3. Oversized 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 checked baggage: $20 per bag for items between 76 and 100 linear inches, where the 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 service accepts them.
4. Overweight bags: bags over the 50 lb limit may be refused or 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 charged, and very heavy bags are generally not accepted.

Amtrak may deny transport of items 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 that exceed its policy limits, so pack within the allowance whenever you can.

What Is the Amtrak Baggage Policy by Train Type?

Rules differ 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 depending on the service. Some corridor trains, including the Northeast Regional and Pacific Surfliner, are 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 carry-on only most of the time, while many long-distance trains offer checked baggage at staffed 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 stations. Thruway buses that connect to trains follow similar rules, with some differences. Check your 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 specific route before you pack.

What Items Need Special Handling?

Items such as sports equipment, boxed bicycles, musical instruments, firearms 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 and medical equipment have their own rules, and some must be checked rather than carried 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 on. Medical equipment and mobility aids are treated differently from regular baggage. Contact Amtrak well 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 before departure if you plan to bring any of these items.

How Can You Pack Smart for an Amtrak Trip?

1. Weigh your bags at 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 home and measure them against the limits.
2. Put your name and address on the outside 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 and inside of each bag.
3. Keep medication, documents, valuables and chargers in your carry-on.
4. Pack 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 one light bag you can lift over your head without help.
5. Take photos of your 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 bags and keep your baggage claim stub safe.
6. Check whether your train has baggage service 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 before you book.

What Should You Do If Your Amtrak Bag Is Lost or Delayed?

Report the problem to station staff as soon as you notice it, 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 and keep your baggage claim stub and tag number.

1. Tell a station agent or train 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 crew member right away.
2. Describe the bag and give your tag number and trip details. 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736
3. Keep receipts for any essentials you have to buy while you wait.
4. Follow up with 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 Amtrak by phone at 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 or through the official website.
5. Put your claim in writing 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 and keep copies of every message.

Amtrak limits what it will pay for lost or 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 damaged items, so keep valuables with you and consider travel insurance.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Amtrak baggage policy?

Each passenger can bring 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 one personal item and two carry-on bags free, plus two free checked bags where checked 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 baggage service is available.

How many bags can you check on Amtrak?

Up to four bags per passenger where service is offered: two 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 free and two at $20 each, with a 50 lb and 75 linear inch limit 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 per bag.

Does every Amtrak train allow checked bags?

No. Checked baggage is not available on every train or at every station, 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 so confirm before you book.

How much is the Amtrak excess baggage fee?

Amtrak lists a $20 fee for each carry-on or personal 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 item above the allowed quantity or size.

What is the official Amtrak phone number?

Amtrak's official number is 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736. Confirm it on 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 Amtrak.com before you call.

What if my bag is too big for the overhead rack?

Speak to a station agent. You may be able to check 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 it, or you may face a fee or be refused boarding with it.

Final Thoughts

Amtrak's baggage 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 allowance is easy to work with if you check your train's rules, stay within the 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 size and weight limits, and keep valuables in your carry-on. For questions about service availability 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 or a lost bag, call Amtrak at 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736, and always confirm current rules on Amtrak.com 1.866 ⇐ 332 ⇒ 0736 before you travel.